

About US

99 We are a leading boutique software solutions and consulting provider based in Zurich Oberland.
We focus on highest quality products and solutions, we deliver client satisfaction.

Our innovative software products and solutions help financial institutions and leading companies in other industries, automate and manage complex revenue and fee share structures, while making sure no regulatory constraints are breached and full audit trails are available.

We are growing and looking for: Consultant Project Manager

Responsibilities

Learn and understand our clients business, identify and document clients business pain points, Translate client business requirements into specifications, Bridge between business and IT, Write business and IT specifications, Produce solution documentation, Estimate project efforts, Plan project delivery, delivery timelines and training timeline, Manage and coordinate project resources, Write test cases and test scenarios documentation, Produce test files for solution testing, Create user stories, Train and advise clients on system operation and testing, Collaborate with other consultants, project managers, solution architects and software engineers to deliver success.

Background

- Understanding of IT for financial industry (fund administration, fund accounting etc.)
- High degree of personal responsibility and motivation
- Enjoy working with highly qualified team members
- Self-driven with open and communicative personality
- Domain knowledge in funds fee management is an advantage
- 10 Years of documented Project Management experience with financial IT projects
- Master or Bachelor degree in: Economics, Finance or IT
- German native speaker with proficiency in English, French would be an advantage
- Experience with multinational environments/companies and various cultures
- Pragmatic, "Hands-on", driver mentality
- Motivator and Team player
- Willingness to travel if required

We offer

- A long-term position in a successful, growing company
- Diverse and interesting financial industry projects (banking, fund administration etc.)
- Challenging tasks and state-of-the-art methods and tools
- Challenging role with a good work-life balance
- Personal development and training opportunities
- Attractive employment conditions
- A motivating environment with experienced domain experts

Your next step

For additional questions please contact us at hr@sowatec.com

To apply please send your CV to hr@sowatec.com

Sowatec AG

Human Resources
Mattenstrasse 14
8330 Pfäffikon ZH

hr@sowatec.com
+44 952 55 55

